had been removed from that status between April 14 and April 20, while five persons had been put under PEN status. Five persons were expelled from Argentina.

3. None of the names listed on the provincial PEN list and the PEN additions-subtractions list were among the "high interest cases" we have registered, nor were there names of persons registered with us as those of disappeared persons.
